Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Carlos Washington commenced the four-year term of supervised release on May 20, 2011. Mr. Washington was cited in Clarksville, Tennessee, on December 16, 2012, for driving on a suspended license. He was arrested on December 29, 2012, for possession of marijuana for resale, possession of hydrocodone, and possession of drug paraphernalia. A violation petition was filed on January 31, 2013, reporting the aforementioned new criminal conduct. He was found guilty of the offense of driving on a suspended license on February 27, 2013, and fined $25 and cost. On April 10, 2013, Mr. Washington pled guilty to simple possession of hydrocodone and possession of drug paraphernalia. The charge of possession of marijuana was dismissed in settlement. He was sentenced to 11 months and 29 days, suspended for each charge, to run concurrent. An order was signed on August 8, 2013, addressing the aforementioned violations and modifying the conditions of supervised release. Mr. Washington's supervision was extended for four months, and he was continued on the remainder of supervised release.

Mr. Washington tested positive for marijuana on August 21, 2013. This violation was reported to the Court in a petition dated September 9, 2013, with a request that no action be taken. At the time of the aforementioned violation, Mr. Washington had requested permission to relocate to Alaska. The probation officer was in the process of initiating transfer of supervision with a request that Mr. Washington be enrolled in substance abuse treatment upon acceptance of supervision in Alaska. Mr. Washington withdrew the request for transfer.

On February 12, 2014, Mr. Washington tested presumptively positive for marijuana. He initially denied use but admitted using marijuana following receipt of confirmation from Alere Toxicology Services. On March 7, 2014, a petition was forwarded to the Court reporting the aforementioned positive drug screen, with a request that no additional action be taken. The Court ordered that no additional action be taken on March 20, 2014.

A substance abuse assessment was completed at Centerstone on May 1, 2014. The therapist recommended that Mr. Washington participate in individual counseling sessions. Following the first individual therapy session, the therapist contacted the probation office and recommended that Mr. Washington participate in medication management in addition to individual therapy sessions. Mr. Washington is agreeable to participating in mental health treatment if ordered to do so by the Court.

Mr. Washington tested positive for marijuana on May 22, 2014, and June 17, 2014. Mr. Washington admitted to using marijuana to the probation officer prior to submitting the urine screens. Mr. Washington is currently unemployed and resides with his mother in Clarksville, Tennessee.

The probation office received the arrest and disposition information regarding the offenses that occurred on October 1, 2013, and March 9, 2014, from the Western District of Kentucky on June 13, 2014.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The U.S. Probation Office is not requesting that any action be taken at this time. Mr. Washington has been instructed not to drive without a valid license. Should the defendant commit any additional law violations, the Court will be notified in a separate petition with a separate recommendation.

This case has been discussed with the U.S. Attorney's Office who agrees with the probation officer's current recommendation.
